

Milwaukee Empty Bowls 2008 Volunteer Pledge

Join us to serve it up and dish it out!

Saturday, October 11, 2008, 10:30am – 2:00pm
MATC Oak Creek Campus, 6665 South Howell Ave.

The largest public empty bowls event in the country is almost here! Be a part of it! Volunteers taking part in a variety of tasks make this a successful event. We would greatly appreciate your support and participation!

On Saturday, there are a multitude of volunteer opportunities at Empty Bowls! We especially need kitchen and clean-up assistance; although these may not be glorious positions, they are vital to the event. Other positions include: washing bowls, serving food and beverages, assisting at the grab bag table, greeting guests, and friendly yet firm folks for patron control.

Volunteers are always needed on Friday, the day before the event, to prepare behind the scenes too! If you are available to assist, or have a van or SUV with capacity to haul bowls and/or soup, this is especially helpful. Please note that this work may require some heavy lifting.

Volunteer Shift Options: We strongly encourage volunteers to sign up for a full day!

Friday Preparation: Noon - 2:30pm 2:00pm - 5:00pm

Saturday Event: 9:30am - 12:30pm Noon - 3:30pm Full-day 9:30am - 3:00pm Clean-Up 1:00pm - 3:30pm

Volunteers may purchase bowls before or after their single shift, or during a break in their full-day shift.

To volunteer, please complete this form and return to Paula DeTemple, Volunteer Coordinator, by Monday, September 22nd. Please include the names of other volunteers who will be joining you, and indicate any volunteers under the age of 14 so that we may assign them effectively. We will confirm your commitment.

Committing by e-mail is easy and reduces our costs, allowing us to give even more to the community. If you have questions, please contact Paula at: MKEEmptyBowls@yahoo.com, or (414) 243-9567. Or, view our web site at www.milwaukeeemptybowls.org.

Thank you so much for volunteering! YOU make this event a success!
